Singing With Nature

Have you ever noticed how much better you feel when you spend time in nature?

This can be done by going singing to you in the park or a field. It's perfectly fine to just observe and listen to the sounds of nature. The one-hour session includes opportunities for quiet reflection, but you won't have to close your eyes because you will already be in a beautiful outdoor space. You will be gently guided through the techniques to connect with nature which can also help with symptoms of depression and anxiety.

It could make the world of difference!

This is a simple and inclusive way to start finding your unique connection with nature and meet others in a safe outdoor space. Join our free Singing with Nature sessions to book or for further information email singingwithnature@gmail.com
